

THE FELLOWSHIP OF IRISH GUIDES AND SCOUTS

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING 2017

Saturday 4th November
City Hall, Dame St. Dublin 2*

Members of Irish Trefoil Guild, Scouting Ireland Fellowships and Le Chéile are invited to attend the Annual General Meeting of FIGS, hear about our activities and meet other members. This year the AGM is being held in City Hall, which is the impressive building nearly opposite Olympia Theatre in Dame St. and there will be a tour of the building as well as a light lunch, before the meeting.

Programme

- 12 noon – meet in foyer for visit to museum and guided tour of City Hall.
- 1 pm - Light refreshments in Members room
- 2 pm – AGM

This year, as a fundraiser, there will be a raffle after the AGM business. Members are asked to bring suitable items they don't need (but don't buy anything for it!).

AGM Agenda

- Welcome
- Reports from Chairperson, Secretary and acting Treasurer
- Election of Treasurer
- Ratification of Constitution (can be viewed on FIGS website www.figsireland.org/events.php)
- Report from World Conference
- Information on Gathering 2018, Eastbourne.
- AOB

Raffle draw will take place at the end of the meeting and we should be finished by 4 pm.

We need to know approximate numbers by 25th October – please contact FIGS secretary if you will be coming for the tour/lunch or just the AGM:

Margery Godinho marge.godinho@gmail.com phone 051 895358 or 087 2896163

*Getting there: Many buses pass along Dame St. and nearby streets. Luas - get off at Four Courts or Jervis and cross Liffey by Capel St. bridge. City Hall is straight ahead (8 minute walk). Car - parking in the area is limited – Car park behind Jury's Inn Christchurch, is the nearest. <http://www.dublincity.ie/node/14397>.